

Welcome to Our eNewsletter

March 2022

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

In 1974, Rita Ungaro-Schiavone founded Aid for Friends in her home. After working with the Archdiocese and volunteering at the YWCA, she saw a great need.

Rita filled a tray with food and brought it to a homebound senior, determined no one go hungry or alone in a world of caring people.

Learn More

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

Over 20 years ago, Judy Stavisky read about Aid for Friends and became a donor. She was involved in a project on national food security, and was thrilled to find a nonprofit close to home connecting people with food.

Then in 2020, Judy began cooking and delivering meals.

Read More

COMMUNITY NEWS

We are honored to be the recipient of an award for outstanding generosity from The Sisters of the Order of St. Basil the Great for collaborating with this Ukranian ministry to provide food to their community.

Read the Article

Inflation is hitting us hard. Consider a donation. For every $1 you donate, we can provide two meals to hungry neighbors.

DONATE NOW

April is Volunteer Month -- sign up for a shift in our kitchen or yours!

VOLUNTEER

