Dear Geoff,

Days can be dark when you don't know where you'll be spending your nights. Thanks to you, Joey and Abilio have a safe space at Bethesda Project with beds, warm meals, and dedicated case managers to help them secure housing that meets their needs, no matter the time of day. At Bethesda Project, they have a community; a community that includes you.

Your generous in-kind donation of 1,465 pounds of food to Bethesda Project provides a safe space and sense of family to 1,500 Philadelphians like Joey and Abilio that experience homelessness. And with the recent outbreak of COVID-19, having access to resources like these are critical.

Not only does your gift help provide essential services like housing, case management, and meals, it also provides a sense of family and community for Bethesda Project guests and residents. While at our sites, guests and residents regain a sense of autonomy - a core focus of Bethesda Project's fundamental belief in the dignity and worth of each person. Your gift creates a space for this growth. And for this, we are tremendously grateful.

Thank you for continuing to believe in our organization and in Joey and Abilio - we could not change lives without you!

Sincerely yours,

Emma Stern
Director of Development
