

For Immediate Release

CARING FOR FRIENDS EXPANDS EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP

In a time of increased need, CFF welcomes a new Board Member and Managing Director of Development

June 23, 2022, Philadelphia, PA – Caring for Friends (CFF), one of the largest free meal providers and food banks in greater Philadelphia, is growing its team to meet the staggering need for food and friendship in the face of inflation, isolation, and global food shortages. To help develop strategy, partnerships, and tactics to bring in more food and funds, CFF welcomes Tina Beaumont, a Managing Director at Accenture, to join the board of directors, and Renee Archawski as its Managing Director of Development.

Tina Beaumont is a managing director in Accenture Strategy & Consulting. Since joining Accenture in 2007, Tina has worked alongside C-suite executives and boards of the world's leading organizations, helping them accelerate their digital transformation. She currently serves as the global life sciences industry lead for Accenture Strategy & Consulting's CFO & Enterprise Value and Sustainability practices, specializing in change management, process re-design and engineering, and zero-based budgeting solutions. A champion of Inclusion & Diversity, Tina was recognized as a Minority Business Leader by the Philadelphia Business Journal in 2019. Tina earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Penn State University. She is a Delaware County native and currently resides in Newton Square.

Renee Archawski brings 25 years of non-profit management and fundraising experience to her role as Managing Director of Development. In this position, Renee will oversee contributed revenue and government affairs. Prior to CFF, Renee was on staff at Teach for America for six years where she served on the national development team as a Development Coach, working with teams across the country to plan and strategize for fundraising success. In addition, Renee served on the Teach for America Metro Atlanta regional team as Managing Director of Development and also as Interim Executive Director. Renee is a proud board member of Today is a Good Day and Achieve Now. Renee graduated from Penn State with a BA in English and holds an MA in English from West Chester University. She lives in Ardmore with her family.

Caring for Friends is hiring for other positions, as well as seeks volunteers to cook meals, deliver them, and make snack bags for homebound, homeless, and hungry people. Visit the website to learn more: <https://caringforfriends.org>

To request an interview with Tina or Renee, or for more information, please contact Stef Arck-Baynes at Stef@caringforfriends.org

##

Founded in 1974 on the belief that no one should be hungry or alone in a world of caring people, Caring for Friends is a volunteer organization and free meal provider serving greater Philadelphia. CFF provides food and friendship to homebound seniors, veterans, and those with disabilities; delivers meals to people facing homelessness; and donates food to more than 250 community partners in unserved and underserved neighborhoods. In 2021, CFF rescued, sourced and distributed more than 12 million pounds of food. Volunteer to cook meals, pack snacks, make deliveries or visit with clients at caringforfriends.org.